

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Concerning the

CALL FOR PAPERS: FCJ. VOL. 48, ISS. 2, FALL 2020

The Florida Communication Journal (FCJ) is a professional, double-blind refereed publication of the Florida Communication Association. The Association has re-scheduled the convening of its 90th convention from October, 2020 to February 18-20th, 2021 (Orlando). COVID-19, as with many disruptions to the rhythms in life, is the antecedent for the convention change and for this FCJ announcement.

Volume 48, Issue 2, Fall 2020 is an open call. Deadline to submit manuscripts to floridacom.org is July 31st, 2020. The Editorial Board encourages the submission of previously unpublished papers and research reports related to all aspects of the human communication process. The Board also encourages the submission of faculty and student collaborative work, rigorous student submissions and important pilot studies. The Florida Communication Journal is interested in publishing a variety of material and methods including quantitative, qualitative, critical and/or rhetorical analysis that makes noteworthy contributions to the advancement of human communication scholarship. Manuscripts should be based on primary research.

Volume 49, Issue 1, Spring 2021 is an open call privileging manuscripts that align with the theme of the 90th FCA conference, #truth. Deadline to submit manuscripts to floridacom.org is December 1st, 2020.

Information, guidelines and manuscript submission details are found on the Florida Communication Association website at <https://floridacom.org>.

Jon Braddy, Ph.D.

Editor, Florida Communication Journal

jbraddy@fgcu.edu